

Dear Sirs:

The potential of radio frequency interference (RFI) from such a service as proposed is totally unacceptable and until new technology provides the methodology to prevent and/or eliminate such harmful interference, especially with the amateur radio frequencies, that such service not be allowed. Thank you.